Children's Library Website Naming Contest Rules

The Enoch Pratt Free Library is planning a new website just for kids, so we want kids to pick the name. Here are the rules to enter:

Who is eligible to enter?

Any child age 6 - 12.

How does a child enter?

To enter the contest, fill out the attached form or print out a copy from the Summer Reading Program page on the library's website and turn in the completed form at any Pratt Library.

Is there a limit to how many times a kid can enter?

No, kids can enter as many times as they want since we want to pick the best possible name for the website.

When is the contest?

The contest will run from June 6, 2009 to August 1, 2009. All entries must be turned in to a Pratt Library by Saturday, August 1, 2009.

What does the child win?

The winner will receive a special prize and certificate to be decided at a later date.

Who will judge the entries?

All entries will be judged by the Children's Website Redesign Committee of the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

When will the winner be announced?

The winner will be announced in September 2009.

PLEASE NOTE – ENTRIES RECEIVED AFTER SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 2009 WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

Thank you for all your creative entries.
