Summary Information

Repository	Enoch Pratt Free Library Special Collections
Title	The Hilda P. Holme Illustrated Book Collection
Date	15th through 19th century
Extent	15.45 Linear feet 16 boxes and 172 books
Language	English

Scope and Content note

The Hilda P. Holme collection consists of 16 boxes of prints from the 15th through the 19th century, and 172 illustrated books. The book collection is considered a chronological record of illustrated books and can be searched in the library catalog under Hilda Holme collection. The collection consists of items using various types of artistic techniques, such as, mezzotints, aquatints, woodcuts, steel engravings, wood engravings, lithographs, line engravings, stipple engravings, and etchings. The titles listed for each print are of the original book and not the title of any individual print.

Arrangement note

The initial processing of the Hilda P. Holme collection consisted of a chronological arrangement of prints in an Access database that was also divided by size. The collection was then physically arranged by size. The current finding aid follows this original arrangement.

Series I: Prints, quarto 1479-1942 The prints consist of a variety of subjects; these include: 15th-16th c. wood cut prints, 17th c. portraits of nobility, birds, botanical images, encyclopedia or a dictionary of Arts, ladies fashionable dress, landscapes, geography, British Sportsman, Rapins History of England. legends of the Rhine, American scenery, Chinese empire, Valentine's Manual, Scottish landscapes, 11th Census of the U.S., and humming birds.

Series II: Folio Prints 1488-1885 The prints consist of a variety of subjects; these include: 15th-16th c. wood cut prints, visitor's guides to London, rural churches, 18th c. systems of geography, 19th c. government documents on the first transcontinental railroad, 19th c. travel accounts of China and Great Britain, and a 19th c. of England.
