

The Pratt Contemporaries is a group of young professionals in Baltimore with a shared civic commitment to the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

Membership dues, along with special events, have raised nearly $2 million for the Library's Child & Teen Literary Programs and the renovation of the Central Library

Membership Levels & Benefits	LEADER $1,000+	MISSION MAKER $500	PATRON $250	SUPPORTER $100
Invitations to exclusive Pratt Society and Pratt Insider events (Pratt's major donor affinity groups)
Two (2) complimentary VIP tickets to the Black & White Party ($400 value)*
A private tour of the Pratt Library tailored for you and your guests
One (1) complimentary VIP ticket to the Black & White Party ($200 value)*
One (1) complimentary general ticket to the Black & White Party ($175 value)
Invitations to select Pratt author receptions
Reception with Pratt CEO
Access to the Black & White Party pre-sale, including early ticket purchase and a $50 discount for up to two tickets
Free or reduced admission to select Pratt Contemporaries events
Recognition in the annual Donor Roll Call
Subscription to donor newsletter, Pages from the Pratt
Subscription to the Compass magazine

Not to be combined with other complimentary ticket benefits.
The Enoch Pratt Free Library is a 501(c)(3) organization.
Membership dues are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law.*