

The Pratt Contemporaries is a group of young professionals in Baltimore with a shared civic commitment to the Enoch Pratt Free Library. Membership dues, along with special events, have raised more than $2.5 million for the Library's Child & Teen Literary Programs and the renovation of the Central Library

Membership Levels &amp; Benefits	LEADER $1,000+	MISSION MAKER $500	PATRON $250	SUPPORTER $100
Invitations to exclusive Pratt Society and Pratt Insider events (Pratt's major donor affinity groups)
Two (2) complimentary VIP tickets to the Black & White Party ($400 value) *
Access to the Black & White Prologue Party for all of our BW Party tickets
A private tour of the Pratt Library tailored for you and up to four (4) guests
One (1) complimentary VIP ticket to the Black & White Party ($200 value) *
One (1) complimentary general ticket to the Black & White Party ($175 value)
Reception with Pratt President & CEO
Access to the Black & White Party pre-sale, including early ticket purchase and a $50 discount for up to two tickets
Free or reduced admission to select Pratt Contemporaries events
Recognition in the annual Donor Roll Call
Subscription to donor e-newsletter, Pratt Possible
Subscription to the Compass magazine

*Not to be combined with other complimentary ticket benefits.
 The Enoch Pratt Free Library is a 501(c)(3) organization.
 Membership dues are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law.