WRITERS LIVE

APRIL RYAN
Under Fire: Reporting from the Front Lines of the Trump White House

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 7:30 P.M., CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER, 5603 N. CHARLES ST.

April Ryan is White House reporter for American Urban Radio Networks and a CNN political analyst. She is the only black female reporter covering urban issues from the White House, a position she has held since the Clinton era. In her new book, Under Fire, Ryan takes us inside the confusion and chaos of the Trump White House to understand how she and other reporters adjusted to the new normal. She takes us inside the policy debates, the revolving door of personnel appointments, and what it is like when she, as a reporter asking difficult questions, finds herself in the spotlight, becoming part of the story.

ON OCTOBER 16, 1859, JOHN BROWN AND HIS BAND OF BROWN'S FIGHTERS WERE FIVE AFRICAN AMERICAN MEN – JOHN COPELEAD, SHIELDS GREEN, DANGERFIELD NEWBY, LEWIS LEARY, AND OSBORNE PERRY ANDREW.

FIVE FOR FREEDOM: THE AFRICAN AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN JOHN BROWN'S ARMY

As the mother of Wes Moore, author of a bestselling memoir about overcoming the obstacles that face a fatherless young black man, Joy Thomas Moore is constantly asked: How did you do it? Her answer is “presence” – the presence of mind, heart, faith, courage, resources, connectedness and values – seven impactful ways of being a force in a child’s life, ensuring that they feel your influence. In The Power of Presence, Moore shares compelling stories from other single mothers, plus practical advice. Joy Thomas Moore is a Peabody Award winner and president and CEO of JWS Media Consulting. She worked for 15 years with the Annie E. Casey Foundation. Kat Jackson of FOX5 will moderate the conversation with Joy Thomas Moore and Wes Moore.

CHRIS HEDGES
America: The Farewell Tour
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 6:30 P.M., CENTRAL LIBRARY, AFRICAN AMERICAN DEPARTMENT

Chris Hedges is a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist who was a foreign correspondent for 15 years for The New York Times. In his new book, America: The Farewell Tour, he provides a provocative examination of America in crisis, where unemployment, deindustrialization, and a bitter hopelessness and malaise have resulted in an epidemic of diseases of despair. Marc Stein will moderate the conversation with Chris Hedges.

AN EVENING WITH MICHAEL DOWNS & PAUL GOLDBERG
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 6:30 P.M., MARYLAND STATE LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND & PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED, 415 PARK AVE.

Michael Downs will read from his debut novel, The Strange and True Tale of Horace Wells, Surgeon Dentist. A former newspaper reporter, Downs is an associate professor at Towson University. Paul Goldberger’s debut novel 72 Ff, published in 2016, was a finalist for the Sami Rohr Prize for Jewish Literature and the National Jewish Book Award’s Goldberg Prize for Debut Fiction.

EUGENE MEYER
Five for Freedom: The African American Soldiers in John Brown’s Army
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 6:30 P.M., CENTRAL LIBRARY, AFRICAN AMERICAN DEPARTMENT

On October 16, 1859, John Brown and his band of eighteen raiders descended on Harpers Ferry. Among Brown’s fighters were five African American men – John Copeland, Shields Green, Dangerfield Newby, Lewis Leary, and Osborne Perry Anderson. Five for Freedom is the story of these five brave men, how they came together at this fateful time and place, and the legacy they left behind. Eugene L. Meyer is an award-winning journalist and author and a former longtime reporter and editor at the Washington Post.

PETER DEVEREAUX
The Card Catalog: Books, Cards and Literary Treasures
MONDAY, OCTOBER 1, 6:30 P.M., CENTRAL PARK BRANCH

In a slide-illustrated presentation, Peter Devereaux, editor of The Card Catalog, published by the Library of Congress, will talk about the legacy of the card catalog and show images of some of the Library’s original cards and covers of many famous and beloved books in its collection. Devereaux, a Roland Park resident, is a writer-editor with the Library of Congress Publishing Office.

TIM MOHR
Running Down the Haus: Punk Rock, Kerouac, and the Fall of the Berlin Wall
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 6:30 P.M., MARYLAND STATE LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND & PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED, 415 PARK AVE.

Tim Mohr tells the story of East German punk rock and the brave young men and women who successfully fought authoritarianism and lived to see the collapse of the East German dictatorship. Tim Mohr is an award-winning translator, writer and editor. Prior to starting his writing career he earned his living as a club DJ in Berlin.

WALTER MOSLEY
John Woman
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 6:30 P.M., CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER, 5601 N. CHARLES ST.

John Woman recounts the transformation of an unassuming boy named Cornelius Jones into John Woman, an unconventional history professor – while the legacy of a hideous crime lurks in the shadows. It is a deliciously unexpected novel about the way we tell stories, and whether the stories we tell have the power to change the world. Walter Mosley is the award-winning author of more than fifty books, including the bestselling mystery series featuring Easy Rawlins. Walter Mosley will be in conversation with Paul Coates, founder of Black Classic Press.

REYNA GRANDE
A Dream Called Home
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 11:30 A.M., LIGHT STREET BRANCH

A Dream Called Home is the inspiring account of one young woman’s journey to find her place in America as a first-generation university graduate, a Latina, and a writer determined to change the course of her family forever. Reyna Grande is the author of two award-winning novels and an earlier memoir, The Distance Between Us (2012) which was a National Book Critics Circle Awards finalist and the One Maryland One Book for 2014. Grande won the 2015 Luis Leal Award for Distinction in Chicano/Latino Literature. Presented in partnership with Maryland Humanities.

JABARI ASIM
We Can’t Breathe: On Black Lives, White Lies, and the Art of Survival
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 6:30 P.M., CENTRAL LIBRARY, AFRICAN AMERICAN DEPARTMENT

In these wide-ranging and penetrating essays, Jabari Asim explores such topics as the twisted legacy of jokes and falsehoods in black life, the importance of black fathers and community, the significance of black writers and stories, and the beauty and pain of the black body. Jabari Asim is the author of four books for adults, including The N Word, and six books for children. He is the editor-in-chief of Cross magazine and a professor at Emerson College.

LIZA MUNDY
Code Girls: The Untold Story of the American Women Code Breakers of World War II
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 6:30 P.M., MARYLAND STATE LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND & PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED, 415 PARK AVE.

Recruited by the U.S. Army and Navy from small towns and elite colleges, more than 10,000 women served as code breakers during World War II. Their efforts shortened the war, saved countless lives, and gave them access to careers previously denied to them. A strict vow of secrecy nearly erased their efforts from history. Now, through extensive research and interviews, bestselling author Liza Mundy tells their story in Code Girls.

JANE ROSENBERG LAFORGE
The Hawkman: A Fairy Tale of the Great War
MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 6:30 P.M., ROLAND PARK BRANCH

The Hawkman by Jane Rosenberg LaForge, a poet and writer living in New York, is a re-telling of several Grimm’s fairy tales set against the backdrop of World War I. An American schoolteacher, dynamic and imaginative, and an Irish musician, homeless and hated, are thrown together in an English village where they quietly hide from the world in a small cottage – until reality shatters their serenity.

SUSAN ORLEAN
The Library Book
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 7 P.M., THE GEORGE PEABODY LibRARY, 17 E. MOUNT VERNON PLACE

In The Library Book, award-winning journalist and bestselling author Susan Orlean investigates the legendary fire at the Central Library in Los Angeles on April 29, 1986. The building was gutted, and 400,000 books were lost. To this day, the cause of the fire remains a mystery. Orlean also looks at the evolution of libraries and the crucial role they play in our lives. Susan Orlean has been a staff writer at The New Yorker since 1992. She is the author of seven books, including Rin Tin Tin, Saturday Night, and The Orchid Thief. Presented in partnership with the Johns Hopkins University Sheridan Libraries.

Programs For Adults

6 / September & October 2018

BROther Outreach is the definitive film biography of one of the most controversial figures of the Civil Rights Movement. Bayard Rustin was one of the first Freedom Riders, an advisor to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and A. Philip Randolph, and organizer of the 1963 March on Washington. Intelligently, gregarious and charismatic, Rustin was denied his place in the limelight for one reason—he was gay.

MODERATOR: Dr. David Terry, Morgan State University Department of History, Geography & Museum Studies.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1 P.M.

THE PRATT LIBRARY AF RICAN AMERICAN FILM SERIES

AT THE MARYLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 210 W. MONUMENT ST.
