Type your password exactly the same way in both boxes. Your password must have at least eight characters. Remember your password.

Gmail sends a text message to verify your account. Enter a valid mobile 'phone number where you can receive text messages.

Enter a current e-mail address to use as a backup during password recovery.

Enter numbers from these pictures. This lets Gmail know what you're a real person. Computer programs registering for accounts can't read the numbers in the pictures.

Accept the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy. You can un-check the personalization box if you choose to. This may add some protection to your privacy.

The screenshot shows the Gmail interface. At the top, there's a search bar and a user profile icon. Below that, the Gmail logo and navigation tabs for Primary, Social, and Promotions are visible. The inbox contains three messages from Gmail Team. A pop-up window titled "Welcome!" is displayed in the foreground, containing the text: "For a quick tour of Gmail's key features, click Next." and a "Next" button. The interface also shows a "Compose" button, a "New Hangout" button, and a storage usage indicator (9 GB of 15 GB used).
